DESCRIPTION:

San Francisco that is situated halfway between London and Tokyo. Seattle and San Diego is one of the most interesting and unusual cities of America.

Tour program:

The acquaintance with the city starts from the main square of San Francisco – Civic Plaza, where the main offices of the city, state and federal level are located. The first stop is at the San Francisco City Hall for making photos of it and surrounding buildings including the Herbst Theater, where the UN Declaration was signed in 1945. Then you will see St. Mary the Virgin Cathedral and Cliff House observation deck with the view on the beach and the ruins of the Sutro Baths – the wonder of the 19th century.

After this, you will visit the beautiful "Golden Gate" park, which will impress you with its beauty and scale. On the observation deck of famous "Golden Gate" bridge you will be able to see the nearest support. Palace of Fine Arts will definitely amaze you with its grandeur - "Panama - Pacific Expo", the most grandiose exposition in the US history took place right here

The tour will be finished by a walking tour of the city - where we'll visit "Hyatt" - "Alcazar" and "Lombard Street" - the most crowded street in America, and finally, we'll go to Telegraph Hill - another amazing observation deck.

Itinerary: Central Square – “Golden Gate” Park – “Golden Gate” Bridge – Palace of Fine Arts — Lombard Street — Telegraph Hill
