DESCRIPTION:

People say about this ineluctable city: "You can leave San Francisco, but San Francisco will never leave you..." And it is simple truth, because this romantic and not typical city for the United States make 18 million of tourists to love it every year.

Tour program:

The program of the tour is designed for the world's waiting for you. During a tour you will see the most interesting and significant places of San Francisco. From the world-famous and famous Pier 39 in San Francisco with sea lions scurrying to the hills, which are the bright symbols of the city.

We will feel the history of California, examine the oldest building in San Francisco – Dolores Catholic mission, and visit the administrative part of the city, where the City Hall and Herbst Theater (in which the United Nations Declaration of 1945 was signed) are situated. After that we will go up the steepest hills of the city, where the famous "flying" chases are filmed, Lombard Street – the most "crooked" street of America, and two wonderful observation decks – "Treasure Island" and Telegraph Hill.
The most important places of this tour are the Presidio, where in 1945 the United Nations Declaration of Independence was signed, the old Spanish Presidio, where we will go to the security hall of San Francisco Bay and see the famous "Golden Gate" Bridge plunging into fog. Haight-Ashbury district will remind the beginning of the hippie, and famous Alamo Square will amaze by the beauty of the Victorian mansions architecture.

Itinerary: «Treasure Island» — Central Square — Lombard Street — Telegraph Hill –
"Golden Gate" Park – "Golden Gate" bridge — Palace of Fine Arts — Pier 39
