Common

San Diego is called 365 days full of joy and "America's Finest City". Mild and warm climate, luxury beaches and quays, beautiful gardens and parks, modern architecture and old monuments, the sky, which is always blue, and pelicans flying in it, brightness and variety of this paradise amaze even experienced travelers!

Del Coronado is a historic hotel, and the only 19th-century hotel in the world. Showing the most interesting places of the city, we will descend the steps of the Pacific Ocean!

La Jolla
Coastal area of La Jolla is a real reserve in the heart of civilization, here we can see fur seals, lying right on the beach, and pelicans flying in the sky. Then we will go to the main street in the city – "Avenue" that is called local Rodeo Drive, because of big number of expensive boutiques, art galleries, luxury hotels and fashionable restaurants there. After that, we will go up to the highest observation deck – Mount Soledad, the best place to watch and admire the city. Mount Soledad Veterans Memorial is also interesting. The wall, enveloping the nine-meters wide cross, are covered with commemorative plaques immortalizing the soldiers who participated in military conflicts.

Coronado Island
Our next stop is the charming Coronado Island. Famous "Del Coronado" hotel, where "Some Like It Hot" movie was filmed in 1959. It was built in 1888. This place is famous for its old mansions, yachts, comfortable hotels and luxurious beach with white

San Diego
Downtown The historical center — The Gaslamp Quarter is famous for its theaters, nightclubs, music halls and a huge number of restaurants in restored Victorian buildings. Beautiful waterside, "Unconditional Surrender" that is the sculpture of American sailor kissing a nurse, the Maritime Museum, where such famous ships as "Star of India", the Soviet submarine B-39 and USS Midway aircraft carrier will impress you!
Balboa park This is the heart and soul of the city! Park looks like an old Spanish town, it was built specifically for Panama-California exposition (1915-1916), celebrated the opening of Panama Canal. From then on, the park has become a favorite place of residents and guests of San Diego. We will walk through its shady alleys, enjoy amazing architecture and look into the nooks!
Sea World® Park Sea World® is a world famous park with marine animals, located in the beautiful bay, the first aquarium of the "SeaWorld" company, opened in 1964. This is a huge theme park focused on the World Ocean and its inhabitants with different attractions and entertainment programs. Here, on a huge water stadium you will watch a great show with big killer whales, fur seals and dolphins.
