DESCRIPTION: The picturesque water area of the Everglades National Park in Florida is an ideal place for fishing on the Bass.

After meeting with your guide and placing in a fishing boat, your exciting "cruise" will begin on the waters of Everglades. Relax and enjoy a sunny day while your experienced guide takes you to the best fishing spots.

Thick and lush water vegetation is a favorite habitat for Basses and other representatives of aquatic fauna, so your guide knows exactly where the best biting will be. When the time comes to unwind the fishing rods, listen to the helpful advice of an experienced instructor and do not forget to keep the camera on hand to capture the most interesting moments and then boast an impressive catch.

When traveling through the water area of the park, look around and you will be amazed by the amazing surrounding landscapes.

The day spent in this fishing oasis is sure to appeal to both professional fishermen and novice lovers.

What is waiting on you:

- advice and instruction, both for beginners and experienced anglers
- the amazing nature of Everglades Park
- Bigger perch in a quiet backwater with stunning scenery
- boating on the water surface of the Everglades water area

What you need to know before booking a tour:

- previous fishing experience is not required
- insurance deposit for boat is required $ 250
