DESCRIPTION: Every year, the doors of the Ancient Spanish Monastery open to more than 50 thousand visitors who find peace and spirituality, listening to beautiful music, and immersing themselves in the atmosphere of the Romanesque and early Gothic architecture of this monastery.

During the tour you will learn an amazing story about how the Monastery of the Virgin, the Queen of the Angels, built in the 12th century, came to Spain from Spain in the early 20th century to the city of Miami.

You will learn about the mystic and the guardian of the order, the founder, the abbot of the Abbey of that time and about who such Cistercian monks are.

Visiting the museum and the monastery in operation today, you will get acquainted with some old specimens, such as the Pope's closet, iron gates, Spanish chests, the Abbot throne, knights' armor, hearse, as well as Masonic insignia, family coats of arms, statues of Christ and Spanish kings.
