DESCRIPTION:

The City of the Big Apple welcomes you! For a few busy hours you will get to know the most dynamic and energetic city in the world. You will learn the fascinating moments of his difficult history, you will see with his own eyes his infinite variety, get acquainted with his unique culture and feel the pulse of his inexhaustible energy. You will walk along Wall Street, visit Memorial 9/11, visit Rockefeller Center, visit Central Park and Strawberry Glade. You will have unforgettable impressions that will remain with you for life! For the first time visitors we conduct sightseeing tours in all five districts (borough) of the city of New York. The first and main, of course, Manhattan. From it the Capital of the World began. Located on a small island, Manhattan can not grow in width, so it grows in height, hitting its skyscrapers and views from above. We will show you the city from observation platforms, roofs, from a bird's-eye view. New York is magnificent with water and special places, which you will be told in Russian by an experienced guide Valentina Romanova. It is called the "city of contrasts" - for a few hours of sightseeing in New York you will see everything from the most expensive street in the world and a millionaire mile to the poorest Spanish areas of black Harlem. You can make a photo session against the background of the most iconic places in New York: Statue of Liberty, Empire Building, Iron, Rockefeller Center, Time Square, Lincoln Center, Broadway, Manhattan theaters and museums, jazz clubs, restaurants, Central Station with its secrets, Central Park All the celebrities living around him. You will not only see all the splendor of New York, but you will also learn the history and some piquant details from the Russian-speaking guide Romanova Valentina.
