DESCRIPTION:

During the excursion you will find many interesting stops with the history of the islands and attractions and walks for photography.

You will depart from Miami to the southernmost point of the continent of the United States of America to the island of Key West, where pirates and their descendants once lived. On the way, you are waiting for stunning scenery, and when you get to the city, you can taste local cuisine, have fun and learn the rich history of these unique places in the open ocean.

Together we will travel south on comfortable transport, where you will find exciting horizons of the modern highway "Overseas Highway", which is laid directly above the ocean crossing many islands. We will drive along the bridges up to 12 km long, we will make many stops in the most interesting places with sights. We learn the history of pirates and underwater treasures.

Having visited one of the mysterious places of southern Florida at the very beginning of the journey you will learn about the history of "Stone Love", which still keeps many secrets. You will also touch the life and fate of the famous American writer Ernest Hemingway, you will visit inside his boat "Pilar" and at his estate. On one of the islands, a place with a guide, you will walk around the village with craftsmanship craftsmanship, visit souvenir shops with handmade products, see artists and glass craftsmen.

Arriving in Key West, you will discover a lot of museums, unique bars, shops, restaurants and amazing historical attractions such as the sea buoy in the southernmost point of the USA, the Truman dacha, the sea moorage, the treasure museum, the zero mile, the giant statues of the local Artists and much more, which will surprise even the most sophisticated travelers.

During an incredible trip to Key West, fill your cameras with photos, shopping bags - shopping, and stomachs - with food and drinks before returning to Miami.

What awaits you:

- stunning and picturesque views of the ocean, beaches, islands and bridges
- Visit to many shops, bars, museums and restaurants;
- the opportunity to visit the most southern point of the continent
