DESCRIPTION: A two-day excursion around San Diego.

Estimated time is 8 hours a day.

1 day. Meeting at the hotel at 10 am.

You will visit the island of Coronado and the eponymous hotel, the very one in which the film "Some love it hot" with the delightful Marilyn Monroe took place. Then you will get to the park, from which you can see a wonderful view of the Business Center of the city. We will then take you to the place where San Diego originated - Old Town. You can experience the atmosphere of the 19th century, stroll through the numerous Mexican shops and enjoy Mexican cuisine. Old Town is a great place to buy souvenirs for every taste and purse.

After lunch our route runs along the coast. We will visit the Torrey Pines Reserve with delightful views of the ocean. We finish our tour to La Jolla, where you can enjoy a magnificent sunset, stroll through the galleries and dine at the best restaurants in the city.

The cost of the tour is $ 400. Maximum 3 people.

Day 2. Meeting at the hotel. 10 a.m

In this version of the excursion, we will meet you at the hotel and take you to the place where the European pioneers who discovered California landed. Our tour begins with a visit to the Lighthouse in Point Loma. You will discover stunning views of the bay and we will get acquainted with the history of the discovery of San Diego. Next we will visit the Yacht Club and have lunch in one of the restaurants in a beautiful view. Immediately after lunch, we will take you to the famous Balboa Park, where you can visit the botanical garden and get acquainted with the flora of Southern California.

We will finish our excursion to Gaslamp Quarter. This is the most thrilling place in the city, where you can dine and continue the evening in bars and nightclubs.

The cost of the tour is $ 400 per day. Maximum 3 people.
