DESCRIPTION:

Day 1. (Sunday)

Arrival in Tokyo (Narita / Haneda Airport). Meeting with a Japanese driver at the airport. Transfer to the hotel on a shuttle bus with other tourists without a guide (includes a meeting at the airport and escort to the hotel doors).
Self-check-in at the hotel.

Attention! In most Japanese hotels, check-in time is after 15:00/16:00. If you wish, you can book an early check-in for a fee, but this must be done immediately when booking a tour.

OPTIONAL TOUR

Evening tour around Tokyo

Day 2 (Monday)

Excursion to Kawagoe

You will see the symbol of the city - the ancient wooden belfry Toki-no-kana and get acquainted with the construction of houses kuradzukuri - black stores-warehouses, which are the pride of the city. You are also expected to visit the Museum of the Kawagoe Festival - this annual festival, whose history is more than 360 years old, in 2016 it was listed as an intangible heritage of UNESCO. You will walk along the ancient street, where there are many shops with traditional products of local artisans, and you can buy authentic souvenirs.

Return to the hotel.

*Attention! In the temple it is necessary to take off your shoes, so we recommend to have socks with you.

Day 3. (Tuesday)

Sightseeing tour of Tokyo

The tour begins with a walk in the park Shinjuku-Gyoen. It was founded in 1906 and originally belonged to the imperial family, now it is one of the most famous parks in Tokyo. Further, you will move to the western part of the Shinjuku district - the business center, where the construction of skyscrapers began in Japan and where the building of the Tokyo government is located. Then you will have time for dinner. As well as, you will visit the observation deck of the world's tallest television tower - SkyTree (634 meters), from where from 350 m you can admire the spectacular panoramas of Tokyo. Moving to the Asakusa area is one of the few places where the spirit of the old Tokyo has been preserved. - You will visit the oldest Buddhist temple on the territory of Tokyo Sanso-ji and stroll along Nakamisè shopping street, where the largest number of souvenir shops is located in Tokyo. At the end of the tour you will visit the square near the Imperial Palace - here since 1869 there is the official residence of the Emperors of Japan, the oldest ruling dynasty in the world.

Transfer to the railway station. Transfer to Osaka by express train shinkansen. Meeting with the coordinator at the Shin-Osaka station near the train. Hotel accommodation.

Day 4 (Wednesday)

Excursion around Kyoto

Kyoto, which for more than a thousand years was the imperial capital of Japan, is still considered the main center of the country's traditional culture. We will visit one of the main attractions of Kyoto - the world-famous Golden Pavilion (Kinkaku-ji), a temple lined with gold, resting over the waters of the Mirror Lake. Furthermore, you will visit the famous philosophical garden of 15 stones at the Zen Buddhist temple of Ryoan-ji, in which the stones are arranged in such a way that from wherever you look at the garden, one of the stones invariably eludes you. You will have dinner time. We will visit the Temple of Pure Water (Kiyomizu), this place has received its name in honor of the waterfall inside the temple. The temple is located on a hill, and from its observation platform a wonderful panorama of Kyoto opens. You will have opportunity to walk along the Geisha gion quarter. Return to the hotel.

Day 5 (Thursday)

Free time in Osaka.

Recommended to order excursions for an additional fee.

* Optionally, you can leave for Tokyo earlier: either immediately after the tour of Kyoto, or on the fifth day.

The date of return to Tokyo must be determined when ordering the tour.
