DESCRIPTION:

We invite you to a great tour of Moscow with a visit to the territory of the Moscow Kremlin. The bus tour provides an ideal overview of the city's most famous sights, you will visit the most iconic places and admire panoramic views of the city.

Your tour begins in the Alexander Garden. You can see such world-famous sights as the Kremlin, Red Square and Lenin's Mausoleum, St. Basil's Cathedral and the GUM building.

The bus excursion around the city starts from the Metropol Hotel. Then, passing by the Bolshoi Theater and the KGB building on Lubyanka Square, you will go to the Moscow River. Drive along the embankment to the Cathedral of Christ the Savior, the largest Orthodox church in the world and look at the statue of Peter the Great. Take a photo on Vorobyovy Gory, the highest point in Moscow. Make a stop at the Novodevichy Monastery, known since the XVII century, which is included in the UNESCO World Heritage List. Drive along Kutuzovsky Prospekt, past the Arc de Triomphe to one of the busiest streets of Moscow - Novy Arbat.

After a bus tour of the city you will visit the Moscow Kremlin - an ancient fortress in the heart of Moscow, which was the residence of kings and communist leaders, and today it is the official residence of the Russian president. The Kremlin is a symbol of the power of Russia. During the tour you will see many of the most famous sights of the Kremlin. You will see ancient cathedrals, the famous Tsar Bell and Tsar Cannon, magnificent palaces of emperors and communist monuments.
