DESCRIPTION:

We invite you to a bus evening tour around Moscow. You will see the most famous sights of the city, visit the most iconic places and admire panoramic views of the evening city. We provide a unique opportunity to see Moscow in the glitter of multi-colored lights!

You will meet with your guide at Izmaylovo hotel, where the bus tour begins. During our excursion you will admire the views of the capital in colorful lights and sparkling lighting. Our first stop is the Red square - the main symbol of Russia and St. Basil's Cathedral - a masterpiece of Russian architecture. Then we will be passing by the Bolshoi Theater and the KGB building in Lubyanka Square to the Moskva-river. Drive along the embankment to the Cathedral of Christ the Savior, the largest Orthodox church in the world and look at the statue of Peter the Great. Next stop is the Novodevichy Monastery, known since the XVII century, which is included in the UNESCO World Heritage List. You will be able to take photos on Vorobyovy mountains, the highest point in Moscow with a breathtaking night city view. Drive along Kutuzovsky Prospekt, you will stop on Poklonnaya hill (Victory Park), the towers of Moscow-city. Then you will pass by Arc de Triomphe to Novy Arbat - one of the busiest streets in Moscow. The tour finishes at the Izmaylovo hotel.
